BACK FROM COAST—Mrs. P. P. Waller, wife of the manager of Riverside park, has returned from a three week visit on the coast.

WHOSE COCKER SPANIELS?—Two black cocker spaniels were picked up by the police yesterday and are being held at the city jail awaiting the appearance of their owner. One is more than a year old and wears a collar. The other is just a puppy.

BETTER SERVICE TO RIVERSIDE—Commencing today, all jitney lines will have entry into Riverside park. The fare will be ten cents each way, as under the former arrangement with the larger auto buses, and the same route will be traversed, but with more buses operating, patrons of the park are assured of much better service for the closing week.

MORRIS FUNERAL—The funeral services of John Morris, who passed away Friday night, will be held at the Mohn Driscoll Undertaking parlors at 2:30 p. m. today. Rev. Solly Morris will officiate, assisted by Rev. Solly Morris. Mr. Morris was one of the best known colored people in Phoenix, having been here for the past twenty years. He was familiarly known as "Honest John."

PLINY OF APPLES—Manager Duncan of the Walter Hill company has received word from Walter Hill to the effect that he has purchased the entire apple crop of the Verde Valley, amounting to about 10,000 boxes and will ship them to Phoenix as soon as the crop is harvested. He stated that although the crop this year is not exceedingly large, it is about the average in quality.

CENTRAL COMMITTEES WILL CONVEENE TODAY

The first work of organizing the parties for the campaign to end in November, will be done today at the state house, when the state central committees meet and elect officers. In most cases, the new committees will be on hand, for practically all the larger and near counties have sent their delegations, elected by the county central committees in a manner that will permit the parties to bring their representatives up to date in other words, the men chosen in the primaries of the twelfth, will have representation in the central bodies.

In the republican state central committee meeting, it is possible that the present officers will be continued, since they have opened state headquarters, and are now thoroughly in touch with the arduous work of organizing the counties.

There is no present head to the democratic state central committee, since Judge Frank J. Duffy resigned to become a candidate for the nomination for the supreme court. There is a humor, however, that he will be returned to office.

PHOENIX HIGH LEADING THEM IN EVERYTHING

Seventy typewriters will be constantly operated in the Phoenix high school commercial department daily, and there is still a number of students demanding this course.

This department won nearly all the honors at Tucson during University week. It has also graduated the fastest typist in the state. Mr. Michaels, head of the department, holds over fifty letters of recognition from the Remington and Underwood typewriter companies, congratulating K. H. S. in the exceptional work turned out by students who have written from eighty to ninety words per minute. There is not one single word in which Phoenix high school is not the best in every department in the Southwest.

Successful Ones

Ralph Johnson, a graduate of the class of '14, was seen lately on the high school campus. He is one of the many successful graduates of the school. For the past three years he has been in business for himself in Williams, Arizona, where he foreclosed a $25,000 mining deal.

Sid Myers, a former graduate, has also made good. He has worked up as district manager of the Universal Film Exchange, and modestly admits that it is thunders to be a manager and watch some unruly student without a conscience rob him of his fair friends who still attend school.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY MEETS

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The annual conventions of the American Chemical society, the American Electro-Chemical society and the technical section of the American Paper and Pulp association begin here tomorrow. American achievements in the chemical industry which before the war was dominated by European countries will be shown in concrete form at an exposition in conjunction with the convention. Dyes and chemical products will be made and compared, it was said, with the foreign articles. The United States bureau of standards will show what it is doing to aid industry.

ELOQUENT PRIEST DELIVERS A PLEA FOR PROHIBITION

Father Patrick J. Murphy, one of the most eloquent priests in the Catholic church, addressed two large meetings yesterday, speaking in the interest of prohibition.

At the afternoon meeting Grady Gammarie, secretary of the State Temperance Federation presided. Herbert Nixon, a singer, pleased the large audience with several songs.

Father Murphy, is from Delhart, Texas, and is an eloquent as well as a convincing speaker. He has been fighting for twenty years in the interest of prohibition, and has been in the thick of practically every big fight staged in this country during the past decade.

He told of his work in Texas, how he had been attacked by a mob when he made an attack on the liquor interest.

The fact that the Catholic church is very strong for prohibition, was brought out by the priest. He stated that a recent meeting of bishops and other dignitaries of the church held in the east one prominent bishop had said that the time was coming when those members of the Catholic church who were selling and manufacturing liquor would have to give an accounting before "the great white throne."

Pope Leo XIII. Father Murphy stated had been for prohibition, and every dignitary of the church was lined up in the fight against the liquor evil.

The afternoon meeting was held at the court house, and the evening meeting, at which about 1,500 were present, was held at the city hall plaza.

IN, OUT AND IN AGAIN FOR JERRY SULLIVAN

Jeremiah Michael Sullivan yesterday afternoon transferred his headquarters from Glendale to the Phoenix city jail. Formerly well known in this city particularly to the police, Mr. Sullivan, not long after Arizona went dry, transferred his residence and allegiance to the best salaried town. He progressed rapidly there until he crowned his ambition for fame by being chosen chairman of the most sensational democratic rally ever held in Glendale. The publicity he secured upon that occasion was augmented by further newspaper references to him and his methods, most of which were inspired by him.

Comes Jeremiah Michael to Phoenix some three or four days ago. His conduct in front of a local chop house convinced Jerry Sullivan, policeman, that Jerry Sullivan of Glendale, and former member of the party of laborers over which Policeman Sullivan, as policeman, had supervision, was intoxicated. Policeman Sutherland was of the same opinion and so Jeremiah Michael was taken to the city jail and charged with being drunk and disorderly.

On the following day the prisoner had "recovered" and was emphatic in denying that he had been intoxicated the night before. He asked that he be allowed to go on his own recognizance in order that he might have opportunity to prepare his defense and secure witnesses who would substantiate his claim of having been perfectly sober the evening before. Later he secured a further continuance of his case, the later date chosen being this afternoon at 4 o'clock. When this was definitely determined, Jeremiah Michael issued a cordial invitation to the public to attend the trial of his case at which he would appear as his own attorney.

It may have been overwork and worry in the preparation of his brief and in securing witnesses, that was responsible for his condition yesterday afternoon when Policeman Stewart found him at First and Monroe streets. The officer intimated to Mr. Sullivan that he believed he was drunk again. Thereupon there ensued an argument which resulted in Jeremiah Michael landing again behind the bars. It seems altogether likely that Mr. Sullivan will be a busy man this afternoon in police court presenting a defense in two cases of like nature. Although he complained of a dark brown taste in his mouth last evening, the genial Jeremiah renewed his cordial invitation to the public to attend his trials in police court this afternoon.

WANTS MATERNITY KITS FOR BABIES MADE FATHERLESS

Miss Caroline Dawes Appleton.

Miss Caroline Dawes Appleton, founder of "Friends of Childhood," has sent out a nation-wide call from Washington, D. C., for maternity kits for Belgian and French babies who will be born while their fathers are away at the front. The women of these warring nations, she says, are sadly in need of the materials which go to make up the maternity kits.

awards is used. For instance, in the pig contest the basis of awards or basis for deciding the state champion is as follows:

1. Best adapted to its purpose.
2. Greatest average gain.
3. Highest net profit.
4. Exhibit at fair.
5. Story, "How I Raised My Pig."

Total score

For instance a club member may fail by a good many pounds from raising the largest pig, but by making a good showing in the other things mentioned above he may easily win out.

NORMAN J. M'KENZIE CLUBS ARE FORMING

That the thousands of miners in the state are taking great interest in the campaign of Norman J. McKenzie, republican candidate for state mine inspector, is manifested by the fact that the miners are forming numerous Norman J. McKenzie clubs in all of the various mining centers.

Loyal friends of Norman McKenzie have just formed a "McKenzie club" in Cochise county with more than 500 members. It is expected that the number will be swelled to more than 1,500 within the next week or ten days. Cochise county is the home of Mr. McKenzie where he has been working in the mines for a number of years.

It is in view of McKenzie's marked ability as a practical miner that the mining men in Arizona are behind him, claim his admirers. The miners assert that it is necessary for the safety of men down the shafts, in the tunnels and in all branches of mine work to have a thoroughly experienced mining man in this office who knows what needed reforms are necessary. In Globe Miami and Ray as well as in the mining districts throughout the western part of the state, the men are all rallying to his support, which gives his campaign efforts all appearances of success.

THREE WEEK END GUESTS OF CITY

Mary Lee, Sadie Lane and Adaline Henry (alias Starr) were week end guests of the city, occupying apartments in the city jail. They were given the best house afforded, including electric lights, running water and meals served to them. In order that they might enjoy themselves uninterruptedly over Sunday, a heavy iron door was locked upon them from the outside.

The three colored women were all that were left in the city jail out of fourteen brought in by the police last Friday night as part of the operations in clamping down the lid on vice and gambling. They will be tried in police court this afternoon together with eleven others, if they appear, instead of forfeiting their bonds.

This afternoon promises a busy session of the city court. Besides the fourteen women arrested, there are two men to answer charges of loitering about houses of ill fame. Jeremiah Michael Sullivan will have to answer two charges of being drunk and disorderly, another drunk and disorderly case is on the docket, and there are three or four other minor cases.

YESTERDAY WAS THE COOLEST OF SUMMER

Yesterday was the coolest day of the summer. While the east and north are worrying about wondering when the snows will follow the present epidemic of frosts, the Salt river valley has just started to enjoy its delightful fall.

The lowest temperature yesterday was registered by the local branch of the weather bureau at 55. The highest was caught at 92. Those two figures proved a welcome diversion after months and months of stifling hot weather.

During the past few days, perhaps a week, coats and vests have been making their appearance on the streets. During the summer months to wear a coat is to brand the wearer as a stranger or a citizen of Tucson, trying to belittle the beautiful climate of the valley. Winter suits have been dug, pressed and cleaned, and in some cases a spirit of affluence has been demonstrated in the purchase of a new suit.

The nights have also changed. Light bed clothes are welcome, and along towards morning, it is getting to be the habit to wake up and reach for the blankets.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR FASHION SHOW

Although it will not in any way rival the state fair, and will not detract from its drawing powers, the fall fashion show as planned by the downtown merchants of Phoenix, is this year going to be the best production of its kind ever staged in Phoenix.

Arrangements are fast being completed with the view in end, that the people of Phoenix who are anxious to get a line on the fall styles, may have their wishes fulfilled to the limit.

The night of the show will be in the nature of a fete. Two bands will be on the streets. The various stores will furnish free amusements, the stocks of new fall merchandise will be on display, and everyone from grandma to the youngest in the cradle is guaranteed his money's worth which will be below the zero mark.

No goods will be sold that night. A suit of clothes a dress or a hat, couldn't be purchased that night if the riches of the Indies were to be offered.
